

Don't kill black snakes!!

Time for them to come out of sleep time to patrol your yards.

That's a copperhead in its coils.

Black snakes do keep other vermin in check.

Leave them be.

They want nothing to do with you.

If you see them they are hunting.

